Anchuthengu, formerly known as Anjengo or Anjenga, formed in 1952 is a coastal panchayath about 3.26 sq.km area located in the Thiruvananthapuram District of Kerala. It is situated 9 km south-west of Varkala Town along Trivandrum – Varkala – Kollam coastal highway. It contains 14 wards including Kayikkara Asan Smarakam and Nedunganda which are historically remarkable places. Nedunganda is famous for its biodiversity heritage tree, (gaiva paitrika vriksham) which is about 200 years old now. Under the shades of this tree, Mahakavi Kumaranasan, a well renowned poet among modern kavithrayam is believed to write many poems. So this is now a historically important area in Kerala.

NSS Unit of Sree Narayana Training College is voluntarily willing to preserve and protect the heritage tree with all its honour along with Biodiversity Park constructed by Anchutengu Grama Panchayat.

OBJECTIVES AND FORMS OF CO-OPERATION

1. To protect culturally important area of Chembakathara.
2. To conduct programmes to protect heritage tree by both institutions.
3. To identify culturally important areas and enhance knowledge and experience of our students towards historical importance.
4. To provide the services to the society and improve their well being.
5. To undertake institution visits, to historically important places in Anchutengu Grama Panchayat.

This Memorandum of Understanding is entered into as on 10/06/2019 by and between the Principal, Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda and the Secretary, Kerala Sasthra Sahithya Parishad, Varkala, Thiruvananthapuram, Kerala.

Sree Narayana Training College, Nedunganda is a pioneer educational institution in the field of Teacher Education. The college was established six decades ago in 1958 by Sri. R. Sankar in the name of the great Visionary Spirit, Sree Narayana Guru. The college is located at Nedunganda, Varkala. It is affiliated to the University of Kerala and accredited by NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) and recognized by NCTE (National Council for Teacher Education). The college offers Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) course spanned for two years, split into four semesters. There are six optional subjects.

Kerala Sasthra Sahithya Parishad is a People's Science Movement of Kerala, India, founded in 1962. Over the past five decades, it has grown into a mass movement with a membership over 50000, distributed in more than one thousand two hundred units spread all over Kerala. Kerala Sasthra Sahithya Parishad (KSSP) literally means The Kerala Forum for Science Literature. KSSP chose as its mission, the challenge of arming the people with the tools of science and technology so that they can reverse this process. Thus in 1972, KSSP decided to become a People's Science Movement and adopted "Science for Social Revolution" as its motto.

OBJECTIVES AND FORMS OF COOPERATION

- 1) To popularize science and scientific outlook in the prospective teachers.
- 2) To enhance the scientific aptitude and evaluation skills of prospective teachers through active participation in the programmes organized by Kerala Sasthra Sahithya Parishad in schools across the state.
